Tourist spot

Nikko Toshogu Shrine

<https://www.visitnikko.jp/en/>

Nikko Toshogu is a Shinto shrine situated in Nikko, Tochigi Prefecture. The shrine is part of the "Shrines and Temples of Nikko," listed in 1999 as a World Heritage site. It is the mausoleum of Ieyasu Tokugawa, who founded the Tokugawa Shogunate in 1603 and passed away in 1615. The original temple was rebuilt into the spectacular complex by the third Shogun Iemitsu in 1636 to demonstrate the power of the Tokugawa Shogunate. The buildings in the precincts are world-famous for an abundance of colorful and elaborate sculptures depicting plants and animals as well as imaginary creatures.

Ouchijuku

<https://ouchi-juku.com/>

Ouchijuku is a former post station located in Minamiaizu-gun, Fukushima Prefecture. Because of its historical significance, the entire town is designated as an important preservation district of historic buildings. The central point of Ouchijuku's tourist spots is this preserved district. The district is home to numerous eateries, souvenir shops, accommodations and more, all with thatched roofs. Enjoy a stroll through the townscape as you think about the Edo Period (1603-1868) in which these buildings were constructed. If you're willing to travel a little distance from Ouchijuku, other recommended spots include the To-no-Hetsuri, a cliff which forms over a period of 1 million years, another important preservation district of historic buildings called Mazawa Magariya Village, and the Aizu Tajima Gionkan which will introduce you to the 800 years of culture behind the festivals in this region.

Aizu Bukeyashiki Old Samurai House

https://aizuwakamatsu.mylocal.jp/en_US/trip/spot-list/-/spotdetail/spotinfo/100000069/3999496

"History Impressive Museum Aizu Samurai Residence" is a facility whose mission is to pass down and disseminate the history and culture of Aizu centered on Aizu Samurai Road. The 2300 tsubo Aizu feudal lord Saigo Yoromo's residence is a magnificent Japanese-style building using zelkova, cypress, and cedar wood. It is remembered. In addition, there are many attractions such as a historical museum, a rice mill, a camphouse and a teahouse, which are important cultural properties of the prefecture. There is also a painting experience corner for Akabeko and Kyudo Koboshi, and you can get a prize by hitting the target in the archery experience.

Tourist spot

Tsuruga Castle

<https://www.tsurugajo.com/language/eng/>

When the castle was constructed nearly 600 years ago, it was just a traditional Japanese building. However, many famous Japanese military commanders successfully ruled the castle, as it was a key castle located at the center of the Tohoku Area. Around 400 years ago, the castle tower was built, and the castle was officially named "Tsurugajo castle". During the Boshin Civil War that occurred at the end of the Edo Period, many Aizu Citizens were held inside the castle as it was relentlessly attacked by the Meiji government army for a period of one month. Eventually, the Aizu clan was forced to surrender. After the Meiji Period in 1874, Tsurugajo Castle, which was once called impregnable, was completely torn down, except for the stone walls surrounding the perimeters. The current castle tower was rebuilt in 1965.

Marunaka Farm Strawberry Picking
