①

Zao Fox Village

<http://zao-fox-village.com/en>

Over 100 foxes are free-range. The park is in the woods, and when you walk there you can see foxes such as foxes that continue from behind and foxes that pull clothes. You can touch not only foxes but also animals such as rabbits.

②

Tsuruga Castle

<https://www.tsurugajo.com/language/eng/>

When the castle was constructed nearly 600 years ago, it was just a traditional Japanese building. However, many famous Japanese military commanders successfully ruled the castle, as it was a key castle located at the center of the Tohoku Area. Around 400 years ago, the castle tower was built, and the castle was officially named "Tsurugajo castle". During the Boshin Civil War that occurred at the end of the Edo Period, many Aizu Citizens were held inside the castle as it was relentlessly attacked by the Meiji government army for a period of one month. Eventually, the Aizu clan was forced to surrender. After the Meiji Period in 1874, Tsurugajo Castle, which was once called impregnable, was completely torn down, except for the stone walls surrounding the perimeters. The current castle tower was rebuilt in 1965.

③

Inawashiro Lake

<https://bandaisan.or.jp/ib/en/>

Lake Inawashiro is a freshwater lake, the third in size in Japan and with a water transparency of 12-15 degrees. The lake is a migration ground for swans and home to the "Mizusuji-koge" moss clusters that have been designated a National Natural Monument. There is only one island in the lake, Okina-jima Island. Its view from National Route 49 as well as from the adjacent railway lines scenic spots in the lake area. Other places of natural interest include the crater lake Okenuma with a diameter of about 100 meters (328ft), emerald green waters and a beautiful hiking trail; Utabandai Goshikinuma, a cluster of five volcanic ponds; Oguninuma Pond, whose wetlands feature about 300 different species; and the largest of the Urabandai lakes, Lake Hibara, also a hot-spot for pond smelt fishing and best viewed through pleasure cruises.

Ouchijuku

<https://ouchi-juku.com/>

Ouchijuku is a former post station located in Minamiaizu-gun, Fukushima Prefecture. Because of its historical significance, the entire town is designated as an important preservation district of historic buildings. The central point of Ouchijuku's tourist spots is this preserves district. The district is home to numerous eateries, souvenir shops, accommodations and more, all with thatched roofs. Enjoy a stroll through the townscape as you think about the Edo Period (1603-1868) in which these buildings were constructed. If you're willing to travel a little distance from Ouchijuku, other recommended spots include the To-no-Hetsuri, a cliff which forms over a period of 1 million years, another important preservation district of historic buildings called Mazawa Magariya Village, and the Aizu Tajima Gion-kan which will introduce you to the 800 years of culture behind the festivals in this region.

Tadami line view spot

<https://tadami-line.jp/>

Matsumoto Castles is one of five castles designated as 'National Treasures of Japan' and the oldest five-tiered, six-story castle tower remaining in Japan. Construction began in 1592 of the elegant black and white structure with its three turrets. Inside the castle are steep stairs and low ceilings leading past displays of armor and weapons from the Sengoku Period (Warring State Period) when the castle was built. The narrow wooden windows, once used by archers and gunmen, provide amazing views of the Japanese Alps, Matsumoto City and the koi and swans circling in the moat below.

Zao Rope way

<http://zaoropeway.co.jp/en/>

Japan's leading shopping resort with about 290 luxury brands, famous domestic and foreign brands, and restaurants on the vast grounds overlooking the mountains. Mt. Fuji, a world cultural heritage. In August 2020, we opened a new area "Hillside" with a merry-go-round. On the premises, there are "Hotel CLAD" of the Odakyu Group and "Kinohana no Yu", a one-day hot spring facility that is the only shopping resort in Japan.

Mt. Haguro

<https://hagurokanko.jp/en/>

It is called the boundary between heaven and earth and is located on the forest. In addition, many shops are lined up from mid-April to mid-December. It is a starting point where you can easily go sightseeing at the 5th station. Located at an altitude of about 2,300 meters, you can enjoy a mysterious view overlooking the Fuji Five lakes and the sea of clouds. Fuji gourmet that can be eaten at mountain restaurants is also very popular! A popular product "Fuji Curry" that imitates the shape of a mountain. Fuji melon bread that can only be eaten here is on sale. The Komitake Shrine is nearby and is visited by many worshipers not only as a scenic spot but also for marriage.

Sankyo soko

<https://sakatacity.com/todo/sankyo-soko-rice-storehouses/>

Constructed in 1893, Sankyo-soko Rice Storehouse is comprised of 12 storehouses. This facility was only used for storing rice, and 9 of the storehouses are still in use today. The rest have been renovated into the Shonai Rice Museum and Sakata Yume no Kura. The museum presents information about Shonai rice including the history of rice cultivation, and shows farm tools and daily necessities used long ago. It also displays dioramas showing a traditional farmhouse in the old days and how rice was carried in and out of the storehouses. Sakata Yume no Kura is primarily a souvenir shop, and visitors will find some great souvenirs here. The building comprises 2 of the 3 renovated storehouses and includes a traditional handicraft museum, a snack bar, and the Japanese restaurant, Hokotei. A line of zelkova trees not only provides shade from the sun, but protects all 12 buildings from the wind. People in Sakata have admired and regarded Sankyo-soko Rice Storehouse and the zelkova trees as a symbol of prosperity, and thus a symbol of the city.

Ginzan Onsen

<https://www.japan-guide.com/e/e7975.html>

Travel back in time to classical Japan in Ginzan Onsen ! The town is home to wooden hot spring inns lining each side of the Ginzan River and resonates with nostalgic beauty when illuminated at night by gas street lamps. The view reminds visitors of scenes from the famous film "Spirited Away" by Hayao Miyazaki. Before that the town was used as a location of NHK's popular TV drama series "Oshin", a warm streetlights is particularly photogenic during winter. Walking along the town's streets visitors will find colourful pictures known as Kote-e on the walls of hot spring inns and snowflake designs on tiles on the roads. Relax your feet in hot spring water rising directly from its source at the "Warashiyu" footbaths along the Ginzan River while exploring the town!
